

- Ghent 2023 - Suggested Itinerary for Students

(film students will be following different plans according to their own shooting schedule to be agreed with Rich)

Explore and respond to the historical city of Ghent

Entrance fees for museums etc. vary depending on age and other factors, but are quite reasonable – roughly between €2-10 and sometimes free. If you prefer you can book online in advance for most venues, but it might be easier to pay at the door as we are not a big group. Please check individual website links below for exact pricing and further details.

Monday:

- Travel to Ghent (trip details on Pool)
- Check in and get settled
- Explore the locality on foot
- Meet at hostel at 6.30 in reception- Identify where you want to eat and let us know (students go out in groups)

Tuesday:

- Meet for breakfast from 8.30am
- Visit to gallery - meet in reception at 9.30am

Unhinged at Museum Dr. Guislain.

Photo: Roger Ballen

“Unhinged” is a new presentation by the Museum Dr. Guislain. It tells the story of fools, madmen and mental well-being. The exhibition also sheds light on the evolution and influence of relationships of power in psychiatry.

Jozef Guislainstraat 43
9000 Gent
Belgium

Link to Museum Dr. Guislain

Open from 9:00 h to 17:00 h

- Independent photography and drawing in groups of two or more. You will inform lecturers/support staff where you are intending to go and keep in touch on teams if plans change.
- Meet back at Hostel reception at 6.30pm and discuss where you are planning to go for the evening – you will need to let tutors and support staff know where you are going and keep in touch on Teams, especially if plans change.

Wednesday:

- Meet for breakfast from 8.30am
- Visit to gallery meet in reception at 9.30am

SMAK (Gallery)

SMAK (Gallery) a contemporary art gallery with a range of media displayed.

Jan Hoetplein 1
9000 Gent
Belgium

Link to S.M.A.K. website

Open from 9:30 h to 17:30 h

- Independent photography and drawing in groups of two or more. You will inform lecturers/support staff where you are intending to go and keep in touch on teams if plans change.
- Meet back at Hostel reception at 6.30pm and discuss where you are planning to go for the evening – you will need to let tutors and support staff know where you are going and keep in touch on Teams, especially if plans change.

Thursday:

- Meet for breakfast from 8.30am
- Visit to castle meet in reception at 9.30am

The Castle of the Counts

Gravensteen
Sint-Veerleplein 11
9000 Gent (Gent)

Link to Gravensteen Gent
Open 10am -6pm

- Independent photography and drawing in groups of two or more. You will inform lecturers/support staff where you are intending to go and keep in touch on teams if plans change.
- Meet back at Hostel reception at 6.30pm and discuss where you are planning to go for the evening – you will need to let tutors and support staff know where you are going and keep in touch on Teams, especially if plans change.

Another museum which looks particularly good if you are interested in fine art painting is the

Museum of Fine Arts in Ghent

... and I'll be happy to go there too with any that want to see this.

Below are ideas for photography, sketching and videography locations. Perhaps you would like to visit some of these/book a bike or boat?

Ideas for film and photography locations:

Water Tower near Museum Dr. Guislain

Graffiti and murals in Werregarenstraatje.

Ancient buildings

Docks

Boat Trips

Bike Hire

